2005 Environment: Resolved: The United States Federal Government should substantially change its environmental laws on business and/or industry to improve the environment.

2006 Foreign Aid: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should substantially reform its policy for official development assistance to one or more of the following: Argentina, Columbia, or Venezuela.

2007 Immigration: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should substantially reform its policy toward illegal aliens residing in the US.

2008 Campaign Finance: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should substantially reform its policy toward the financing of federal election campaigns

2009 Energy: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should substantially reform its policy towards domestic energy production.

2010 Income Tax: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should substantially reform its income tax policy while maintaining total tax revenue at fiscal year 2008 levels.

2011 International Trade: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should substantially reform its policy toward trade with China and/or India.

2012 Agriculture: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy towards domestic agricultural production of food.

2013 Social Security: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform Title II of the Social Security Act as amended.

2014 Counterterrorism: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its counterterrorism policy(s) for the domestic surveillance of U.S. citizens.

2015 Foreign Aid: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy for the sale of conventional arms to one or more of the following: Taiwan, Bahrain, or Egypt.

2016 Education: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy or policies for student financial aid for post-secondary education.

2017 Environment: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy or policies for the regulation or direct industrial emissions of greenhouse gas(es) within the United States.

2018 Immigration: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy for granting lawful permanent residence status to aliens outside of the United States or legally present within the United States.

2019 Taxes: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should substantially increase the percentage of total revenue derived from indirect taxation.

2020 War Powers: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform the War Powers Resolution of 1973 as amended or its policy for the authorization for the use of military force.

2021 Postal Service: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform the United States Postal Service.

2022 Housing: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy or policies for financing the purchase of single-family dwellings, excluding policies enacted for COVID-19 pandemic relief.

2023 Agriculture: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its domestic policy or policies for the agricultural production of food in one or more of the following: crop subsidies, concentrated animal feeding operations, or production of genetically engineered foods.

2024 Foreign Alliances: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy for Western Pacific military defense cooperation with one or more of the following: Japan, The Philippines, or Indonesia.

2025 Election Administration: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy for the administration of federal elections.

2026 Retirement Income: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy or policies for retirement income."

2027 Environment: Resolved, The United States Federal Government should reform its policy or policies for the regulation of non-agricultural wastewater discharge into navigable waters.